Atomic Age

North Atlantic Pact is best assurance that the international bully and racketeer will be kept in his place, says U.S. Navy Secretary Frank P. McWhorter. Matthews warned that development of an atomic weapon that could destroy the human race is "terribly possible."

The Arts

Margaret Truman has a "pleasing personality" but her singing has failed to score with Detroit music critics, Detroit newspaper critics. Margaret she is wasting her energies as a concert singer, which could be more profitably channelled in more rewarding fields, and that "her very best is not quite enough for her to make a career as a concert singer."

The Nation

Parliament is supposed to progress by Dec. 31 but few of the experts think the session can make it before Dec. 30. Hunting military expenditures, aid to shipping and amendments to the Combines Act are just a few things likely to keep parliamentary sessions waiting on for an extra week.

People

Nine-year-old Henry M. Blackmer, who ended 25 years of exile from the U.S. in September, has to leave the States again because of ill health. The Boston-born Denver oil tycoon, who was raised up in the Texas oil industry, has not his income tax accounts with Uncle Sam and a fine of $20,000 but he was unable to live in Denver's high altitude. He's going back to his exile home in Paris.

Chinese War

British Far East diplomats have recommended that their government recognize the Chinese Communist regime, according to Washington sources. London officials are studying the recommendations but so far have made no decision. Britain had previously agreed to co-ordinate policy on China with United States and France.

Propaganda

Prof. E. V. Sittler, fired from a professorship at Michigan University, has no apology for pro-Nazi broadcasts he made in Germany during the war. Prof. Sittler said in a recent statement: "I did what now seems to me to be a mistake of European security against Communist imperialism." He admitted he became a member of the Nazi Party.

Freight Rates

Fireworks are predicted at Royal Commission hearings on China Recognition.

China Recognition

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—British and American diplomats predicted today that Britain will give full diplomatic recognition to the Chinese Communist government by the end of this year. Informants here said the only real question now outstanding is the exact timing of the action and how to do it in a manner which will be least disturbing to Anglo-American relations. The United States has no intention of recognizing the Chinese Communists in the near future.

UK Needs All Food Canada Can Supply

Gardiner Tells Producers To Ignore Rumblings In Britain

REGINA, Nov. 29.—(CP)—Britain probably will buy all the food Canada can supply despite the shortage of Canadian dollars, Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner said here. Details of next year's British-Canada food contracts likely will be worked out before the end of this year.

He told Saskatchewan wheat producers that there was no cause for worry even though some private members of the British Commons have recently made statements unfavorable to continuation of present food contracts.

Word from London was that "some plain talk" was likely when the Anglo-Canadian wheat contract comes up for discussion next year. Things are going to be tough, according to Richard Crossman, 41-year-old Labour member of parliament for Coventry East. If British specialists like his advice, they will come to the conference table carrying sharp knives under their arms.

The point is, says Richard the rebel, that the wheat contract is one of the really big issues in Britain's effort to close the dollar gap.

"It may be absurd to talk about Canada joining the sterling area," Crossman said today in a two-hour interview at the commons, "but I don't think it is silly to think about Canada converting part of its sterling for exports to Britain."

He insists his tough talk about wheat doesn't mean he has any grudge against Canada.

"On the contrary, nobody here forgets the Canadian loan and no-party undertakes the benefit to Britain as well as to Canada, of the Canadian wheat contract."

Illness Reduces Robber's Term To 14 Years

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—(CP)—Allan (Baby Face) Giller, 28, sentenced to 14 years in penitentiary for a series of bank and jewelry-store holdups, promptly was released to his home.

Justice T. A. Fontaine told Giller, alias Paul Gendron, that sentence would have been life imprisonment if Giller were not suffering from tuberculosis.

Giller admitted staging six holdups, four involving banks. His total loot was about $20,000, only $1,200 of which has been recovered.

The largest haul, $15,000, came from the holdup of a branch of the Canadian bank of Commerce in the town of Mount Royal last Oct. 6.

A 1,100-mile pipeline is under construction between Alberta's oil fields and the seaboard port of Superior, Wis.

LOOKS LIKE three-year-old Patricia Chivell, 9708-76 Avenue, has inside track with Santa Claus. Cute little Patricia was one of many who told Santa right to his face what she wanted for Christmas and of all things, she wants a bike. Santa paid special visit to free Capitol Theatre show for kiddies today. Later old Santa Nick distributed candy treats to youngsters in Woodward's Wonderful Toyland in big 101 street store.

Santa's Visit Highlight Of Kiddies' Free Show

It was a wonderful case of "All this and Santa, too" for some 3,000 Edmonton kiddies Saturday morning. The little folk were guests at Woodward's Store to a free show at the Capitol Theatre. And they were there stuffed with free hand-out of candy at the big 101 street department store.

Biggest thrill of the morning, however, was the personal visit of Santa to the Capitol theatre.

The jolly old fellow with the white whiskers went up on the theatre stage during an intermission and bounced a few of his little pals on his big friendly knee.

He invited all the kiddies to pay a visit to Woodward's Wonderful Toyland on the fourth floor of the store.

"And I'm giving everyone of you a free candy treat," he boomed to the accompaniment of enthusiastic applause.

MOVIES SWELL

Show at the Capitol was in two parts, with the first starting at 9:30. An hour before the doors of the Capitol theatre opened, there was a line-up of kiddies two blocks long on the south side of Jasper avenue.

The movies were swell. Cartoons of Hugh Hanks, Mighty Mouse, Louie and Little Tramp were right down the alley, so as to speak.

SANTA IS STAR

But Santa was the real star. He waddled up the centre aisle to the stage, bent over almost double by the weight of his heavy fur bag.

He didn't catch any of the little girl napping, either. He asked if he heard about boys and girls, and they were all ready with the right answer to his query.

Gas Company Bill Again Talked Out Of House

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—(CP)—For the third week in succession, members last night "talked out" in the Commons a bill that would incorporate the Alberta Natural Gas Company.

Main opposition to the bill was on the grounds that the company plan to construct a natural gas pipeline from Alberta to Vancouver, but passing through the United States.

E. O. Jones (CCF—Yale) said the line should follow an all-Canadian route. It should be used to develop Canadian territory rather than the United States. Possibly a route through the United States, but that would represent only 30 to 35 per cent of the total cost.

Mr. Fulton said it would be the measure because he felt the company should serve Canadian points first and United States points second.

Mr. Peckham said it probably would not be practical to pipe natural gas to Vancouver Island, but the island's prosperity depended on the prosperity of Vancouver and New Westminster. He agreed with those who argued that the line should follow an all-Canadian route with Vancouver as a distributing point.

ATTITUDE SCORED

Construction and maintenance of the line would run into millions and seven million dollars could be saved by going through the United States, but that would represent only 30 to 35 per cent of the total cost.

Other speakers included E. D. Fulton (PC—Kamloops) and McAllen, C. H. Parkes, V.C. (PC—Regina).

They used up the hour devoted to the study of private bills and measure reverted to the bottom of the list.

Mr. Jones said that if the Canadian Pacific Railway adopted the same attitude as the pipe line company, there would not be today such places as the Kootenays and the Okanagan Valley.

He visualized livestock growing alongside the pipe line.

END OF LINE

If the pipe line went through the United States, Vancouver would be the end of the line. It would get what was left of the natural gas when United States points were served. If there was a shortage, Vancouver would suffer.

Drivers' Tests Needed

The "atrocious driving" to which Commissioner Belcher of the RCMP ascribes the appalling traffic accident rate in Alberta will respond to only one course of treatment — compulsory drivers' tests before licenses are issued.

Commissioner Belcher's vigorous address to the Y's Men's Club in Edmonton the other day laid no doubt on this fact.

In 1944 there were 1,129 traffic fatalities in this province with 44 fatalities.

In 1945 there were 4,093 accidents with 96 fatalities.

"I don't think the increase in the number of accidents," said the commissioner, "is due to the increased number of cars on the roads, but to the atrocious driving."

He further declared that no amount of police surveillance could lessen this appalling accident rate. He said it would be impossible to put enough patrolmen on the highways to control this "atrocious driving."

Now this is a competent and experienced opinion based upon a close knowledge of the facts.

It is an admission by a capable man in a position to know that even the most vigilant police action cannot begin to cope in a complete manner with traffic hazards as they exist in Alberta today.

It is obvious that the situation which obtains in the rural districts over which Commissioner Belcher has police jurisdiction obtains equally in Alberta cities.

What, then, is to be done about it?

For nearly two years The Edmonton Bulletin has unceasingly urged the institution of drivers' tests in this province as a prerequisite to the granting of drivers' licenses.

Such tests are neither experimental nor new.

They have been used, for instance, in the provinces of British Columbia and Manitoba for some years and with notable success.

In both provinces, the establishment of these tests was followed by an immediate falling of the traffic accident rate, for the simple reason that they barred from the road those who were physically or temperamentally unfit to be in charge of a motor car.

Compulsory drivers' tests are the only rational and effective method of dealing with "atrocious driving."

For what reason does the provincial government fail to impose them?

Teen-Age Dances

Need Protection

Teen-age parties have been one of the ideas to be advanced for entertainment of the teen-aged group in Edmonton.

These functions bring the group together. It gives them a chance to meet other members of their own age, stand on this whole matter. They have, of course, taken steps to meet other members of their own age, but apparently they have not succeeded in ending them.

It has already proven that, if given a chance, the teen-aged group will be no doubt at all. But having produced the idea and put it across, the citizens of Edmonton cannot ever be the founder for lack of adequate assistance.

For some time, these teen-aged gatherings have been plagued of a sort of stupid element, the members of which are not even bright enough to realize that they are even a failure at being rowdy. But they are a nuisance. They appear to try to break up the parties by picking fights and bothering those who are attending.

Probably Dull Types

It is difficult to find a reason for this activity unless it is that the members of these gangs are dull sorts who cannot keep busy with the average young person and so try to take it out by bothering others.

However, these escapades do make it unpleasant for those attending the gatherings and, more parents are likely to want their children to be out of the house when these teen-agers are around.

This is bad enough. But teen-agers themselves are tired of this persistent trouble.

Generally, when they are old enough to have enjoyable dances, they are also old enough to know that they are not wanted.

These teen-agers are entitled to have their own parties with their own friends and without having all the time bothered by the police.

There is certainly no juvenile problem if the adult citizens cannot even help the teen-agers to have their own parties.

We worry about the ones who require considerable attention.

It is wherever the solution, the one solid fact is that unless city authorities step on this business from behind, the teen-agers will go on and on, and the city will be completely wrecked.

Tunnels Should Be Considered

With commendable enterprise, Mayor Parsons proposes to look into the whole question of river bridges to determine how much traffic load the 105th street Low Level bridge will carry while the High Level bridge is closed for conversion.

Some consideration should be given, while this matter is under study, to the possibility of eventually substituting tunnels for bridges for all cross-river traffic.

The initial cost of tunnels is usually higher than that of bridges. But tunnels permit a freer movement of traffic and will carry a greater volume of traffic at higher speed.

If tunnels were found to be mechanically and economically feasible, they would be a ploy to spend large sums of money on bridge improvements.

Certainly the chief factor should not be left out of any calculations having to do with the movement of traffic from one side of the river to the other.

What then, is the connection between these saints who belong to the Church Triumphant in heaven and those who are still among the living and belong to the Church Militant on earth?

For it is clear that there is only one church in there is only one Body of Christ which is the Church Triumphant.

That is to say, the Church Triumphant in heaven and the Church Militant in earth make up a single body. They belong to the same church. In the broader sense, they are indistinguishable from each other in their fundamental purpose which is the worship of God.

It is this inter-relationship between the saints in heaven and the Christians in earth which is called "the Communion of Saints."

In the worship of God and in His sacraments, those who are still among the living and those who are united in their prayers to God for each other and for the furtherance of Christ's kingdom.

There is no death in the Body of Christ.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Bulletin.—More People Becoming Pagan?—A recent issue of the Bulletin carried an article by a writer who stated that only five per cent of the population was Christian with pagans increasing by 600,000 yearly over Christians. I would personally number Christians at far less than five per cent, for it is not easy to find a genuine Christian today.

Slaves are not capable of recognizing any philosophy for they are kept illiterate and know none. If a stranger landed upon any part of Canada as any Christian and asked the first person he met what philosophy was generally followed by the people, he would receive a blank and rather confusing reply.

The mentally primitive would discover the great majority of our people understand no philosophy at all or even understand the meaning of the word, and therefore recognize no philosophy.

We are not now a true Christian people for we have adopted the policy of another religion, paganism. We have permitted ourselves to become a managed people. We are now Christian slaves indeed.

The inevitable result of slavery, no matter what form of life is enslaved, is crime. I know of no other living creature on this earth which has committed such terrible crimes as are now being committed against Christians.

Honesty is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. That is why locks and keys are necessary and caution used in dealing with Christians. Pagans are not honest and reliable before Christians introduced dishonest practices.

Christians are being treated as traitors. That is why bank tellers are provided with revolvers. The most devastating war in history has been fought between Christians and pagans. The atom bombs were dropped on the only two Christians of today.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Bulletin.—Your editorial of Monday's date on rental control expresses great sympathy for the lady tenant paying poor wages and rent plus the mortgage addition since, but entirely ignores the fact that the tenant is the victim of about the greatest discrimination ever imposed by war regulations.

Ann Neagle Starred At Empress

Attempts of a debarrier but impoverished member of the British aristocracy to cope with restrictions in austerity-ruled England of today is the theme of "Spring In Park Lane," opening Monday at the Empress Theatre.

Cast as the young lord who gets work as a footman is Michael Wilding.

In recurring role is Anna Neagle as the niece of the wealthy art collector who employs him. The romantic outcome of the situation is obvious.

It's not the story thread, however, which is the highlight of "Spring In Park Lane," but the setting, the sparkling dialogue and the humorous situations arising from the romantic complications.

CARICATURE OF NOBILITY
Screenwriter Nicholas Phillips has produced also a fine caricature of the old-time British nobility. At the same time, the film pokes fun at the current austerity regime.

Produced and directed by Herbert Wilcox, it is based on the story of Alice Duer Miller, of "Cliffs of Dover" fame.

Finally, supporting roles taken by Tom Wall and Peter Graves, who portray respectively Miss Neagle's wealthy uncle and a ham actor who becomes a film star, round out an entertaining bit of film fare.

STARRING in "Spring In Park Lane," screen adaptation of Alice Duer Miller's story, are Anna Neagle and Michael Wilding, who portray niece of wealthy art collector and gay but impoverished lord. Subtle comedy marks film starting Monday at Empress theatre.

The more important animals: fox, muskrat, beaver, mink, raccoon, raised on Canadian fur farms are: martens, nutria, fish, and chinchilla.

Cadets Too Young Boy Scouts Claim
MEDICINE HAT, Nov. 12.—(CP)—A resolution urging that the Canadian armed service raise their minimum age limit for cadet enlistment to 16 and abandon the system of training the "too young" in military practices was endorsed at the annual meeting of Medicine Hat District Boy Scout Association. The proposal will be carried before the annual convention of the Alberta association in Calgary Dec. 5-6.
The resolution states that the three-service cadet movement is affecting scouting. Cadets are enrolled now at 14.

Conversations Of Fish Heard In Film Of Sea

Knowledge that the "silent deep" is not silent after all forms the basis of a scientific color film, "Voice of the Deep." It is to be shown in Central Baptist Church, 96 street and 101A Avenue, Wednesday, Nov. 23, at 8:00 p.m. Rev. R. Schille announced.

Contrary to the old belief that there is no sound under the sea, "Voice of the Deep" reveals that fish have a definite language of their own. Their adequate conversations in the film resemble the peculiar quacks, grunts, whistles, and clicks of a barnyard.

A congregation of snapping shrimp sounds like a crackling fire, while a school of Chesapeake Bay croakers was once mistaking for an invasion of enemy ships.

This is the first time that fish sounds have been recorded in a film, according to Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, producers of "Voice of the Deep." A Moody representative will show the film here, Dr. Fraser McFie.

DIVER IS PHOTOGRAPHED

To achieve the unusual scene of a scientific expedition was sent out from Los Angeles to the coast of southern California. Delicate sounding devices were used to determine where, in time in the hydrophone, or underwater microphone, so that the sound must rise from the sea with a specially outfitted camera.

Thirty minutes of colorful marine drama were the result. To climax the film, preachers-institute Ives Moss takes the new discovery to man's need of God. "For centuries man could not hear fish sounds because he did not have the proper equipment," Dr. Moss declares in a short review of the scientific principles behind underwater sound.

PARALLEL DRAWN

The same is true of the spiritual world. Some people do not believe that a spiritual world exists, but only because they are not equipped to recognize it. Faith in God provides us with the key to the spiritual world.

"Voice of the Deep" is one of a series of sound-on-film being produced by Moody Bible Institute in an effort to link science and religion. Two previous productions were "God of the Atom" and "God of Creation." The newest film is "Dive or Drown," which tells how bats fly by "radar" and of fish which lay eggs on dry land.

Memorial Service To Be Held Sunday

A memorial service in memory of Mr. J. H. Peavey will be held at North Edmonton Baptist Church on Sunday, November 23rd, at 3 p.m. Mr. George Stanger, student pastor of the mission, will conduct the service. Dr. W. C. Smalley, general secretary of the Baptist Union of Western Canada, will be guest speaker.

Mr. J. H. Peavey was Sunday teacher and superintendent at North Edmonton Baptist Mission for many years, and on the Management Committee up until the time of his death. He was foremost among those who worked and planned for the new building, in use since November 1944.

Calgary, Regina Powerhouses Battle for Western Grid Honors

FATED TO be goal at point-guard, Regina's star Del Warden (55), shades off Stamps' Lanthier's and quarter-avenue Warden (55), up their goal try in last minute.

GRIMACING "Woody" Storde (32), great Calgary and shoulders Warden to half after Regina back and sides pined Red Patterson (65), on ground. Riler (Ratler) Matheson (11), move-in to help Storde.

HEADING FOR trouble in Normie (China Clipper) Kemp, Calgary half-back, who drove deep into Regina secondary in third quarter. Roughriders' quarterback Doug Belden (12), and veteran Ken Charlton (85) halt Kwong.

Bing Merluk Gets Hot As Flyers Climax Road Trip

REGINA, Nov. 12

The Flyers' road trip climaxed last night with a 4-1 victory over the Regina Capitals. Bing Merluk scored twice in the second period, while Larry Smith and Larry Smith scored in the first and third periods respectively.

LAST-MINUTE TD WINS FOR BOMBERS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 12 (CP)—A last-minute touchdown by quarterback Jack Patrick gave the Vancouver Bombers a 12-11 victory over the Regina Capitals in the final game of the Western Grid playoffs.

Comeback from a halftime deficit of 12-0 left Bomber supporters in the 4,000 crowd hup and holler the hours of Sunday.

Pete Muir, seventh and sure-fire Bomber back, was winner on Jack Patrick's pass from the Hilltop 20.

There was only time to try for the convert and for Saskatchewan to run back the kickoff before the game ended.

Imps Surprise Tired Tigers

ARNIA, Ont., Nov. 12 (CP)—Sarnia Imperials, a team that wasn't given much chance to advance to the Eastern Canada, Toronto, final, took one big step in that direction yesterday with a surprising 15-6 victory over Hamilton Tigers in the first of the two-game total-point Ontario Rugby Football Union playoffs.

Series finale was the second at Hamilton field.

The Imps, who finished second behind Tigers in the regular season, surprised everyone every move count in their triumph. They outkicked the heavier Hamilton line most of the way, their aerial offense clicked and they were alert of Tiger mistakes.

Quarterback Jim McEwen, who was injured in the first game, was back in the lineup and threw for 150 yards and two touchdowns.

Hamilton's defense was out of sync and the Imps' offense was in full stride.

Grid Cakes

COWTOWN, Nov. 12—(CP)—"Now, we have to wait 100 next year," said the man from Montana, who missed the field goal which would have sent Regina Roughriders into the Grey Cup final.

Had Wardien's effort "gone right," as they say, the ensuing victory would have been a very sweet one for him. He was called into the game as a replacement for the injured Ken Charlton.

And he returned to haunt Lear almost immediately.

As a matter of fact, Lear almost missed himself.

On the play immediately preceding Wardien's attempt, Lester was "miles" offside. Consequently, Calgary was assessed a five-yard penalty, and given another chance to kick a field goal.

CAL GARDNER SUFFERS JAW FRACTURES

TORONTO, Nov. 12 (CP)—Coach Hap Day of Toronto Maple Leafs said yesterday that center Cal Gardner suffered fractures to both sides of his lower jaw in Tuesday night's game with Canadiens in Montreal.

Gardner was injured in collision with Ken Hurlburt in the second period of the National Hockey League game which ended with Montreal on the long end of a 4-2 score. It is not known how long Gardner will be sidelined.

Warden and Rogers: Sale Price $1.98

Call it fate. Call it a stroke of luck. Call it pressure, which it may be. Call it anything you like. But the fact is, both Rogers and Warden came out of yesterday's billiard-chamber football contest in Calgary's McEvoy Stadium wearing awestruck horns. There were the gods, the Fred McEvoy and a game that represented all that really counted in western grid circles for 1949—a crack at the eastern champ in the Grey cup final.

In the clutch, when it meant so much, when a coolly executed booting of the ball through the uprights would have given bouncers their first all-western triumph in 13 long and agonizing seasons, Rogers of Toronto and Warden of Montreal, each got that lump in his throat. Each struck out.

In Warden's case, particularly, there was little reason to expect that he wouldn't come through. According to all reports he had travelled in sensational fashion throughout the afternoon.

But in the end he was like the amateur who made a half dozen passes, only to have the dice come up seven, just when he was about to send the ball into the goal.

The Grey Market Was Barish

So now the Stampede, capped on (Tues. night) by four or five hundred supporters, will head into Toronto in two weeks for the Grey cup final.

And along the way, as the Cowboy Special proceeds east, ordinarily astute Calgary businessmen and their wives, decked out in 10-pallon hats and trying eggs at every opportunity, will try very hard to look like they are westerners.

On this rolling dice ranch there probably won't be any more of the horse bridge, or even a horse to bridge on, but to imaginative Calgarians (some of them still think of their city as Canada's oil capital) it could be a real winner.

One report out of Cowtown last night (it wasn't confirmed) was to the effect that second-year Warden blew his field goal try from Tom Brock, Stampede president, was looking trying to unload 300 dozen eggs at last of the going price.

Just then it looked like the frenzied Stampede and their equally wrought-up supporters were going to get a chance to try the dice of the city of Calgary in Toronto, and other equally unlikely spots.

Clarke Stadium in 1950?

Several hundred Edmontonians trocked the close to 400 yards (down and back) to sit in on the Regina wake yesterday.

A year ago—to the day—these adventurous souls had done the same thing.

But there was one important difference in the situation, 12 months ago and now. Then, local grid enthusiasts had absolutely no proprietary interest in the coliseum at McEvoy Stadium. Edmonton was not even represented in the Western Conference, hadn't been for a decade.

This time they could feel they belonged, and they did. At least, Edmonton, it was true, were not out there to catch a battle. But they might be a year from now, and that was something no one could have said with the same certainty that November afternoon in 1948.

Three or four men who took in the finale a year ago—Bob Bralburn, Walter Sprague, Eric Duggan, Ron Leach and Mac Maynard, among them—were just getting the bug about an Edmonton entry.

But a month and more elapsed, following their return home, before the first general meeting to form a football club was called. And off that Springfield road some soon was up to its neck in Western Conference affairs.

COLORFUL CANADIAN FOLK LORE DRAMATIZED

ANOTHER OFFSHOOT of the Saskatchewan River valley shows radio dramatist Elsie Park Gougen's imagination. She is now, when Edmonton was a wilderness, when handy pioneers thumbed their way through the thickets on their feet to Canada's western shores. Since 1938 Elsie Gougen has dramatized Canada's colorful, romantic past for national radio.

CONCENTRATING NOW ON SHORT STORY WORK

WIND, DEVIL-INSPIRED SUPERSTITION has been woven into a novel of imagination, intrigue and human sacrifice by Gladys Cleveland Steel, one of Edmonton's authoresses. "The Devil's Punch Bowl" is title of the book in which Mrs. Steel's characters grow from a background of Canada's northland forests. "Good writing is exciting," she says, "now I'm relaxing with a season of short-story work."

COMBINATION OF TALENTS ADDS TO SUCCESS

ACCOMPLISHED PLANNING, renowned artist, sculptors of note, Miss Joseph Walker is also one of Edmonton's own authoresses. Her contributions to the literary world began two years ago with publication of her first novel, "The House of the Rising Sun." She is now completing her second novel, "The House of the Rising Sun," and is planning to publish it soon.

Local Authors Pierce Fog Of 'Art' Shyness

Encouragement in Canadian arts is a sometimes thing.

Authors, painters, poets, dramatists work against bulwark of a Canadian self-consciousness only recently "towed up to" by the public.

Progress in Canadian literature has been laborious but steady within the past decade, the war serving its purpose as a hammer at the wall of disdain surrounding our local pen-pushers.

Radio, twentieth-century's child, has embraced Canadian folk lore with the tenderest of sympathies. National net-work has promoted informative, interesting drama, series giving listeners a colorful key to Canada's past, present and future.

More maturity and breadth of outlook is obvious in Canadian literary works of the last half dozen years with novelists Hugh MacLennan, Gwethalyn Graham and Bruce Hutchison contributing excellent examples.

We, in Edmonton, boast of Henry Kessel who authored "The Rich Man" with such force, expression and strength of vision. And we laud Christine Van der Mark, the young English instructor at the University of Alberta, who so vibrantly tells the story of a home-seeing family of Canada's newly opened northland in her recently published novel "In Blue Season."

Canada's pen-pushers are going places!

CONTRIBUTED MUCH TO EDUCATION THROUGH YEARS

ALBERTA SCHOOL STUDENTS for the past quarter-century have thrived on literary production of Dr. Donalda Dickie. Doctor and donor of primary, elementary and intermediate textbooks have been written by Dr. Dickie, contributing to pleasurable infuse of education. At present, Dr. Dickie is in last stages of a History of Canada for intermediate schools.

Rich, Glowing Colors are Applied to Unfinished Plaster Figurines by Miss Noreen Auger, left, and Mrs. Roy Matheson. "Lustrecraft" ornaments, which they have introduced here from the States, are being produced at present in their home city, but will soon be available in commercial quantities.

Lustrecraft Figurine Work Starts In Tiny Basement Studio in City

Another new industry is coming to Edmonton—but this one has nothing to do with oil!

"Lustrecraft" figurines and household ornaments are being introduced here by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Matheson and Miss Noreen Auger.

In a bright, attractive studio in the basement of their home at 1130-9th street, three pairs of clever fingers turn out a variety of articles ranging from little imitation-Royal Doulton figures to polished bowls.

Mrs. Matheson and Miss Auger learned the art in Minneapolis, where it is known as "Doultoncraft". They returned to Edmonton in October, and last week started to give a course of lessons to enthusiastic group of Edmonton pupils.

Special, hand-tooled materials, available only in the east, are what give the finished products their shiny smooth finish, according to Mrs. Matheson. But she smilingly refuses to reveal any more secrets of the trade.

First of all, a rough mold of the figure is cut, then the high grade plaster is poured and allowed to set. The resulting shape is sanded to eliminate any roughness which might detract from the china-like finish.

Four different kinds of paint complete the work. After the base and color coats, an additional

Problem for the Mathesons and Miss Auger right now is how to sell their work, but where to sell it. Shoppers have been snapping it up at a stall in the market square, but now they are looking for a shop where they can really set up in business.

Among the two dozen different articles they make are tiny animals and bird figures, candle holders, wall plaques and linchpins, jugs and powder boxes, bookends and lamps.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

Alberta's First Newspaper—Edmonton, Alberta, Saturday, November 12, 1949

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
By Harold R. Foster

SUMMARY: PRINCE VALIANT AND ALL HIS GALLANT BAND ARE ABOUT TO DIE GLORIOUSLY AS BERTS BRAVE KNIGHTS. THEN ALETA ARRIVES AND, WITH UNROMANTIC COMMON SENSE, PUTS A STOP TO THE WAR FOR A LONG WHILE THE FLAME OF LIFE FLUTTERS LIKE A CANDLE IN A WINDY PLACE.

BUT VAL AND ALETA HAVE TOO MUCH TO LIVE FOR, AND DEATH IS DRIVEN BACK INTO THE SHADOWS.

ALETA GOES SHOPPING; FOR SHE HAS TORN HER GARMENTS TO MAKE BANDAGE.

THE MARKET PLACE IS CROWDED AND ALETA IS SURPRISED AT THE NUMBER OF NORTHMEN, VIKING TRADERS FROM DISTANT THULE.

THIS GIVES HER AN IDEA. IT WILL BE MANY WEEKS BEFORE VAL CAN UNDERTAKE THE LONG, PAINFUL RIDE BACK TO CAMELOT. BUT A SEA VOYAGE.....!

ON A SEA VOYAGE HE COULD REST AND REGAIN HIS STRENGTH. HER MIND IS MADE UP; SHE WILL TAKE VAL HOME!

"GEOFFREY, RIDE SWIFTLY TO CAMELOT AND GIVE THIS PURSE TO KATWIN. TELL HER TO BRING PRINCE ARN HITHER. SHE WILL ARRANGE THE MEANS."

POOR GEOFF! HE MUST DO HIS MISTRESS'S BIDDING. AND AT CAMELOT THEY ARE WAITING TO QUESTION HIM ABOUT THE THEFT OF KING ARTHUR'S HORSES!

THE END OF THE COMIC STRIP FOR THIS WEEK. NEXT WEEK - Arrested.

GOOD EVENING, OFFICERS-- IS THIS A SOCIAL OR A PROFESSIONAL CALL?

STRICTLY BUSINESS, DOC-- LOOKIN' FOR A GUY WHO CALLS HIMSELF "CAPTAIN" KROK!

HM-M-M-- WHAT A COINCIDENCE! WE TOO ARE LOOKING FOR HIM--

WHADDYUH MEAN? WE KNOW HE'S ON THIS BARGE--WE TRACED HIM HERE--

WELL, I ASSURE YOU HE'S NOT ON THIS BARGE NOW-- WOULD YOU CARE TO LOOK A LITTLE FARTHER?

EH? HEY! I SEE WHAT YOU MEAN, DOC-- HOW'D IT HAPPEN?

HOW DID IT HAPPEN? WE'RE NOT EVEN SURE IT DID HAPPEN-- NO--AH--CORPUS DELECTI SO FAR-- BUT MAYBE YOU BOYS CAN--

- CAN FISH HIM OUT O' THAT QUICKSAND? MAYBE! QUICK, CHARLEY-- CALL TH' SUPER--

GET TH' EMERGENCY SQUAD HERE-- GRAPPLIN' HOOKS-- DIVERS-- FLOOD LIGHTS-- INHALATOR--

QUICK! NOT A SECOND TO LOSE! WHERE'S YOUR PHONE?

PHONE? OH, WE HAVE NO PHONE--

I THINK THERE'S A PHONE AT THAT DRUG STORE OUT ON THE POST ROAD-- IT'S ABOUT TWO MILES FROM HERE--

AI-YI! TWO MILES! BUT I GUESS THERE ISN'T NO GREAT RUSH AT THAT!

NA! TH' WAY I LOOK AT IT, IF HE'S IN THERE HE'S IN THERE TO STAY!

BUT WHAT DID YOU BOYS WANT HIM FOR? WHAT HAS HE DONE?

PLENTY! WE GOT A WARRANT FOR HIM-- THAT'S ALL!

HE WAS A BAD 'UN! BUT WE GOT TO MAKE A REPORT--

YEAH! IF IT WAS HIM, HE WALKED OUT ON THIS CATWALK-- IT BUSTED-- SEE?

WAIT A MINUTE! BUSTED, DID IT? THESE HERE CROSS PIECES WAS SAWED! THIS WAS A TRAP!

YEAH! WELL, IT CAUGHT A POLECAT MAYBE-- BUT JUST TH' SAME, IT LOOKS LIKE MURDER--

AND IN THAT CASE, "WHO DONE IT?" AS THEY SAY-- YOU ROCKY! WHAT'S THAT ON YOUR SHOES? LOOKS LIKE BLOOD!

Gasoline Alley

THEY'RE LAZY, CORKY. SKEEZIX AND NINA ARE GETTING MIDDLE-AGED HOPE.

MAYBE WE'LL HAVE SOMEONE TO TAKE ALONG IN A YEAR OR SO--WHO KNOWS?

I THINK I'LL BUILD OUR HOUSE RIGHT HERE, DARLING.

THEN OUR PICTURE WINDOW WILL LOOK OFF IN THIS DIRECTION!

AND THIS WILL BE THE VIEW FROM OUR BEDROOM!

LOOK! A SPRING NOT A STONE'S THROW FROM THE KITCHEN!

NOW THAT WE HAVE THAT SETTLED, LET'S REST A MINUTE.

ISN'T IT WONDERFUL TO BE DEEP IN THE MIDST OF NATURE. SWEETIE PIE-- ABSOLUTELY ALONE!
